

This unconverted townhouse, having high ceilings and full of beautiful period architecture, situated in one of the best streets in Sliema. Accommodation comprises a welcoming hallway which boasts a large room typically used as formal sitting and dining room, a kitchen/breakfast and living room which opens up onto a 100 sqm back garden ideal for entertaining. The first-floor landing leads to 4 double bedrooms with high ceilings and 2 bathrooms. A traditional Maltese stone 'garigor' leads from the ground floor to the roof area where one finds a laundry room. This traditional property will make a lovely family home once converted and is further complemented by a interconnecting 2 car lock-up garage.
